The 192nd Makes a Record

The officers of the home battalion were unusually successful in their examinations in the school just closed, the fifteen officers who attended having all passed successfully. This with those who qualified at Calgary, and those already qualified, brings the total of fully qualified officers up to twenty-nine.
Thus it will be seen that the battalion is now in splendid shape to carry on the work of training.

In connection with the Calgary school, it is gratifying to learn that out of some eighty officers in attendance, Capt.
Cameron headed the list, and in addition now holds the highest marks ever made in the school.
Next in order were Lieuts Campbell, Stubbs, Cherie, Hutchison and Fisher, all of the 192nd. The commandant of the school made special reference to the splendid type of men sent in by the home battalion.

To add more glory to The Pass fighting forces, Lieut.
Howard carried off the honors of the signal school, making a clean one hundred per cent. on each subject, while Armourer Sergeant Cote walked off with the honors of the armourers' school.

The result of the examination of the N.C.O.'s here was rather disappointing, as several good men only received two strikes. However, on the whole, Major Howland, who was president of the examining board, stated that the 192nd had the best lot of N.C.O.'s he had ever examined, and that the fact of 50 per cent. obtaining sergeant's strikes and the balance with the exception of two having obtained certificates entitling them to corporal's stripes, was something the battalion should be proud of.

Rifles are now being served out to the different detachments, and it is expected to have the men well advanced in rifle drill before going to Sarcee camp towards the end of June.

Many people who attended the sports held in Blaimore on Victoria Day, commented on the exceptional ability along athletic lines shown by Eekhardt, of Homsen, B.C. It has now been announced that this world-beater has enlisted with the home battalion, and Col.
Lyon is very much elated over the prospects of cleaning up all comers in the weekly sports which are held at camp.

Recruiting is going on briskly this week, and the strength of the battalion will soon reach the 600 mark, the number necessary to permit of any unit being taken into the mobilization camps.

Lieut. Bain, district orderly officer, examined the books at headquarters this week and was well pleased with everything in general.

Everybody should boost for the 192nd, and do all possible in assisting to bring the enlistment up to the 600 mark.

History of Advertising

Fifty Years Ago It Was Very Much in the Elements of the Advertising in various forms is extremely old. Mention of this art is to be found even in the Old Testament. Under the Cæsars, the walls of the Coliseum used to be plastered with notices from business men in Rome; and in ancient Greece it was customary to hang in the temples, parchment scrolls of complaints and personal petitions of the people, which in turn led to ingenious interpolations on the state, trade and business, thus calling attention to the wares of the complainants.

The obelisks of the Harnessed served a purpose for the Egyptians and St. Paul's Cathedral in London was so covered with trade notices at one time that the constabulary was invoked to tear them down.

All this demonstrated the antiquity of advertising, yet it is only in recent years that its magnificent potency was attained.

The first regular newspaper to publish advertisements was the London Weekly News in 1622. The word "advertising" first appeared in the paper in the London Gazette in 1665. In 1739 appeared the first "personal" in London periodicals, and since that time its working it might have been clipped from the columns of the New York Herald.

The first regularly printed newspaper in America was the Boston News Letter which met its appointed space in 1704 and enjoyed a circulation of only 300 after 40 years.

The New York Gazette first published advertisements in 1726, and in 1830 did not contain one full column, although the first American newspaper, the Boston Post, contained in 1787 as many as 54 advertisements.

Some years ago a merchant who purchased more than four inches of newspaper space was deemed guilty of extravagance, and his advertisement in the London Times in 1865, the London Times in a single issue was the subject for 22,375 separate advertisements.

The earliest American advertisement dealt with real estate and was placed in the New York Post on lower Broadway—now Wamamaker's New York store—Today a whole page would be required sufficient to devote to such an event.

In 1865, the London Times in a single issue was the subject for 22,375 separate advertisements.

Fiji Prince a Private Soldier

A translation of a young Fijian chief's impressions of the war in France is given in the Field. He is Ratu Sukuna, a nephew of the late King Thakombau, who enlisted in the Foreign Legion. He writes: "A thing that amazed me were the shells that were fired from the guns. Like the noise of a trumpet; then like a whistle with a devilish voice, and we were shot at all comfortably. It was as if the elements were kicking our sides and our heads shook, and it was as if our stomachs were on fire. When the Germans mustered up courage enough to attack they came twice under the fire of our best guns, and we scattered them like a flock of fowls, and then our artillery and machine guns ate them up."

A GOOD MEDICINE FOR THE SPRING

Do Not Use Harsh Purgatives—A Tonic is All You Need

Not exactly sick—but not feeling quite right? That you may not feel in the spring. Easily tired, appetite fickle, sometimes headaches, nervousness, depression, pimples or eruptions may appear on the skin, or there may be twinges of rheumatism or neuritis. Any of these indicate that the blood is out of order—that the indoor life of winter has left its mark upon you and may easily develop into more serious trouble.

Do not dose yourself with purgatives, as so many people do. In the hope that you can put your blood right. Purgatives gallop through the system and weaken instead of giving strength. Any doctor will tell you this is true. What you need in spring is a tonic that will make new blood and build up the nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is the only medicine that can do this speedily, safely and surely.

Every dose of this medicine makes a tonic that will make new blood and build up the nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is the only medicine that can do this speedily, safely and surely.

Nine Germans an Hour. The story of a British sniper who hid himself in a well and picked off scores of Germans is related by a correspondent home from the front. The soldier, who was selected to annoy the enemy. He selected a well, into which he crumpled a hide barrier of earth in front of him. Here he installed himself for 16 days, doing deadly work. One morning he brought down a German more than nine Germans in an hour.

By the fifteenth night he had grown so fatigued that he was unable to do a little longer than usual and awoke shivering at dawn. To his surprise he found his hands and feet in the well had been discovered. A fair-haired German giant arose in the grass 40 yards away. Recovering himself, the corporal promptly shot him dead. A few hours later he was relieved.

An Oil for All Men.—The sailor, the soldier, the fisherman, the lumberman, the expert of labor and all who are exposed to injury and the elements will find in Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil a true and faithful friend. To ease pain, relieve colds, dress wounds, subdue lumbago and overcome rheumatism, it has no equal. Therefore, it should have a place in all home medicine chests and those taken on a journey.

One farmer out of every five in Minnesota belongs to a farmers' elevator company. One farmer's elevator company has a membership of 600, one has a membership of 500, two of 400 and four of from 300 to 400. The business done by all the farmers' elevators of the state in 1912-1913 was $24,000,000. In 1912-1913 $30,000,000. Of the $24,000,000 business in 1912-1913 $22,000,000 for grain marketed, and $2,000,000 for supplies of various kinds purchased for members of the company.

A note has been issued by the military governor of Bologna, warning the inhabitants along the Adriatic coast against infected foodstuffs dropped by Austrian aviators. In an interview about this there would be more work regarding the handling of grain at the front. The military season than ever before.

The elevators are full to overflowing with over 40,000,000 bushels of grain, excluding the hospital elevators, the terminal elevator capacity at the head of the lakes is 40,000,000 bushels and the stocks in store exceed this total. There are still 100,000,000 bushels of wheat to be marketed by the farmers and there are 45,000,000 bushels actually on the farms not moved out of the bins. All this grain has to be moved east, the elevators have to be emptied of their contents and all this grain has to come down here and sent on to the east. There is a much larger volume of grain to be marketed than there ever has been before in the history of these two cities," said the chairman.

Miller's Worm Powders act mildly and without injury to the child, and there can be no doubt of their decided effect upon worms. They have been successful used for over one hundred years and are recognized as a leading preparation for the purpose. They have proved of great power in the treatment of children, who, but for the good offices of this superior compound, would have continued weak and enfeebled.

Two young men visiting Paris entered a cafe, and succeeded in making the waiter understand what they wanted, but neither could think of the French word for horseshoe.

"Horse is cheval," said one of his companions, "and that is wrong all right, but I can't remember the French word for 'ho!'"

Minard's Liniment Lumberman's Friend. Why Cheers For Kaiser. A contingent of Irish recruits were leaving their native village for the military center, amid cheers from the assembled villagers and the departing men. Suddenly one of the recruits called for "Three cheers for the Kaiser." When the contingent arrived at its destination this man was called up before the officer in charge and asked what he meant by such conduct. He was quite cheerful about it. "Och, Colonel," he said, "I don't understand Ireland. If 'hadn't been for the Kaiser, there'd have been no blooming war."

A War Joke. The New York World says: "It would be a joke on the British, who were once within ten miles of Baghdad, if the fact were known that the British or British got there first. Baghdad is much rather than Kerman, or Kuteh-el-Amara from Baghdad, but not far by an easy pass from the route of the Baghdad railway and caravan—an easier march, too than that of the army from Erzerum upon Siraz."

It is safe to say that the joke would be much better appreciated by the British than by either the Turks or the Germans in spite of their lack of a sense of humor. Great Britain and Russia have a common purpose and will have little difficulty in reconciling their views on eastern control. Every advance of either the Russian or British forces in Asia Minor means another nail in the coffin of Germany's hopes in the Near East and brings closer the day when troops now fighting in that region can be used against Germany and Austria the greater enemies.

Demand for Flaxseed Exceeds the Supply

Prices Ruling Very High

The annual production of flaxseed in North America is from 15,000,000 to 16,000,000 bushels while the consumption is about 30,000,000 bushels. The shortage of 15,000,000 to 16,000,000 bushels is normally imported from Argentina.

The war, however, has forced the freight rate from Buenos Ayres to 70c a bushel, and has correspondingly increased the price of every bushel of flaxseed on hand. It is now instead of selling at 70 or 80 cents a bushel as in 1912, flaxseed has now this winter as high as $1.25 and has averaged around $2.

This makes it at least as profitable a crop to grow as wheat in wartime. Director Grisdale of the Dominion experimental farm, Ottawa, says: "Prices for flax are likely to be good this coming fall so, where circumstances suggest, it will quite likely be wise to grow this crop."

Fortunately the last two weeks of the harvest time in now flax, and it does well on new breaking soil. After wheat seeding is finished a considerable acreage of flax can be planted as an extra. It leaves the soil as good shape for wheat as would a turnfall, and the farmer has a profitable found crop to the good.

Duet Causes Asthma.—Even a little speck too small to see will lead to agonies which no words can describe. The Director of the breathing tubes connect and it seems as if the very life itself must pass. From this condition Dr. J. K. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy brings the user to perfect rest and health. It relieves the passages and normal breathing is truly established again. Hundreds of testimonials received annually prove its effectiveness.

Ordinarily cut worms feed on grasses, and are not seriously injurious, but when the field in which they are located is cultivated, in the absence of their natural food they eat the cultivated crop. The worms feed at night, usually cutting off the stem of the plant just above the ground, and in the morning the plant is found during the day. They are particularly destructive among tomatoes and cabbage, and frequently cause serious injury even in a corn field. The only effective remedy is to poison the insects by spreading a sweetened with a little molasses and which is green added, over the plantation.

Along the line of the Grand Trunk Pacific in British Columbia a considerable amount of live stock is being introduced, and the foundation is being laid for more or less extensive mixed farming communities.

In these times when there is a marked scarcity of male labor, and production of foodstuffs is so much called for, there is a most advantageous and healthful manner in which women and children can be employed that in the care of poultry.

A woman's section of the National Poultry Society of Great Britain has been formed to encourage householders to keep a few fowls, sufficient to produce eggs for their own consumption. "Every householder," reads their paper, "has room to spare in the garden or backyard to keep a few dozen hens. If good methods are followed he will have at least 300 eggs a year and will thus increase the home food supply."

"We must never forget that we are at this moment in the middle of the great crisis of the war,"—Spectator.

THE failure of the arteries is one of the tragedies of modern life. Men in the very prime of life, and in the midst of business activities, are suddenly cut off. In many cases the blow comes before they realize their condition.

And what is the cause? Most usually overeating and drinking, combined with too little bodily exercise. The blood becomes overloaded with poisons. The kidneys break down in an effort to filter the blood, degeneration of the arteries takes place, an artery in the brain bursts, a clot is formed and paralysis results. Or it may be an artery in the heart that gives way and causes heart failure.

And how is this condition to be avoided? By moderation in eating and drinking, and by keeping the liver, kidneys and bowels regular and active. If you do not get sufficient exercise to accomplish this, it is necessary to use such treatment as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. It is only by the action of these organs that the blood can be purified and the poisons removed from the system. In using

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills you are not making any experiment, for they have no equal as a means of awakening the liver, kidneys and bowels to healthful activity. They prevent such serious troubles as hardening of the arteries, and thereby promote comfort and health and prolong life.

One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, all druggists, or Wm. Chase, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute. Insist on Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Is Land of Peace

Lewis Men's View of Canada—Peace

Constitution in 18.

"I don't want to go to war and I have come to Canada to get some land and make a home," said Carl Carlson, a husky Swede, who went west yesterday to view the land of promise.

"This talk about conscription scaring away immigration from south of the line is all bunk," he continued. "I figure that by coming to Canada, I am avoiding the possibility of being conscripted to go to war. I believe that the United States is going to get involved in this war before long and I am getting out while the getting out is good. If I am in Canada it will be some years before I am liable for conscription, but if I stay in the United States I figure that I might as well be in a hornet's nest."

It will take a large army to hold the aliens in check over there, to say nothing about raising an army of any size to send overseas. Then I figure that Mexico will jump in and make matters worse by daring raids and other large-scale wars will be required to attend to the Germans."

"Canada seems the proper place for a peace-loving American, to my way of thinking, and that's the reason that I'm here,"—Winnipeg Free Press.

A woman's section of the National Poultry Society of Great Britain has been formed to encourage householders to keep a few fowls, sufficient to produce eggs for their own consumption. "Every householder," reads their paper, "has room to spare in the garden or backyard to keep a few dozen hens. If good methods are followed he will have at least 300 eggs a year and will thus increase the home food supply."

"We must never forget that we are at this moment in the middle of the great crisis of the war,"—Spectator.

THE failure of the arteries is one of the tragedies of modern life. Men in the very prime of life, and in the midst of business activities, are suddenly cut off. In many cases the blow comes before they realize their condition.

And what is the cause? Most usually overeating and drinking, combined with too little bodily exercise. The blood becomes overloaded with poisons. The kidneys break down in an effort to filter the blood, degeneration of the arteries takes place, an artery in the brain bursts, a clot is formed and paralysis results. Or it may be an artery in the heart that gives way and causes heart failure.

And how is this condition to be avoided? By moderation in eating and drinking, and by keeping the liver, kidneys and bowels regular and active. If you do not get sufficient exercise to accomplish this, it is necessary to use such treatment as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. It is only by the action of these organs that the blood can be purified and the poisons removed from the system. In using

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS

COAL mining rights of the Dominion, in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the Northwest Territories and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years, renewable for a further term of twenty-one years, at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 20,000 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent, or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In unexplored territory the land must be described, by sections, or legal subdivisions of the section, and in unexplored territory the tract applied for shall be sketched out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a few of which will be retained if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise.
A receipt shall be issued on the receipt of the deposit of the lease fee of $100.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with a true return accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and for the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights are not being operated, such return shall be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only, extended by the Act of 1906 to the surface of the land.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the Dominion Lands.

W. G. GORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior.
N. R. - Unintentional publication of this advertisement will not be held for—3257.

The old Alberta hotel at Calgary closed down with the lease expiration on May 31st, and will be converted into stores.

E. N. Higinbotham, one of Lethbridge's old timers, and for a time postmaster in that city, is moving to Edmonton to take an important position in the provincial secretary's department.

Owing to the requirements of coal mining and pulp companies in Nova Scotia, Alberta and British Columbia, it has been decided to release approximately 1000 interned aliens. These men were interned at the opening of the war, more on account of their inability to make a living than because of any hostile intentions on their part. Instead of continuing to be an expense to the community, they will contribute henceforth to its industrial welfare.

Publicity is all a newspaper has to sell.
Since the war began, every local paper in Canada has given free, hundreds of dollars worth of space, boosting all kinds of funds and organizations in connection with the war. In spite of this, many unthinking people entertain the idea that editors should put up just as much cash as other citizens. If a grocer donated a large quantity of provisions to the war funds, would any reasonable man expect him to put up cash? Then, why poster editors for cash, when they are already giving more to war projects than any other class of citizens. The proper system is to charge for all this kind of publicity, and make cash donations to all funds, just the same as other citizens.
By doing this some of the dull-witted might gradually learn, that the editors of Canada have given more towards war funds, than any other class of people in the entire Dominion.

The Moratorium

One of the most important and far-reaching acts passed by the Alberta legislature at its last session was the one dealing with exemptions for soldiers. It is entitled "An act for the relief of volunteers and reservists," and provides that no action shall be brought or proceedings taken against any volunteer or reservist, or against the wife or any dependant member of his family, for the enforcement of any debt or for any mortgage or other security incurred before the passage of the act, until one year after the close of the war or after the discharge of the volunteer or reservist, whichever shall first happen. This protection applies not only to British volunteers and reservists, but also to any and all of the volunteers and reservists of Britain's allies. Provision is made to prevent the fraudulent disposal or waste of the property of volunteers during their absence.

The act applies to every debt of whatsoever nature, contracted before the passage of the act, but debts contracted since then are recoverable by process of law as usual.

It is going to make hard shelling for some municipalities and school districts.
In some instances volunteers are in re-arrear with tax payments. These cannot be recovered, but must stand over, unless voluntarily paid, until after the war.
It means that municipalities must increase extra taxation this year on account of the impossibility of realizing on some arrears. In most cases it will probably be a very small extra amount, but in a few it will be a considerable item.

It has been stated that some hardy men will enlist in order to get ahead of their creditors. This is very doubtful.
The men in Canada who would try to put over any such deal are very, very few, indeed.

L. F. Clarry, as Master in Chambers, has given a decision that the Act applies to members of the militia, as well as to members of overseas forces.

Biggest and Best

My friends come back from the babbling brooks, and talk of the things they've done, with their poles and reels and their line and hooks, all the sitting of the sun. And each at the end remarks, "I wish I had good luck today; but the biggest fish, and the finest fish was the fish that got away." I have heard that yarn for a hundred years, and I'll hear it still I die, and when a fisherman told appears, I leave me a sob and sigh; for I know full well he will stand and tell the story that's old and gray, of the biggest fish, and the finest fish, and the fish that got away.
It's the freckled boy with the old time bait, and the fishline coarse and stout, who sits him down by the brook to wait for a bite from the monster trout, he gets the bite, and his pole goes "swish!" Kerack and boom-dee! He has caught the fish, the world-famous fish that so often got away!

The bible is without doubt a book of books for every-day use, particularly in the trenches in France. Recently a soldier's life was saved by a bible which stopped a bullet.

A woman was recently elected vice-president of a Conservative association in Manitoba, and another has just won a seat on the Winnipeg school board, in a three-cornered fight, by a majority of 242. A woman can probably fight from any corner.

The question is asked: "Should dangerous sidewalks be taken up or sent down?" We really believe that the property owner who is not so interested in the town as to keep his sidewalk looking safe and respectable, should be sent down to Lethbridge or Ponoka.

A missionary writes from the Fiji Islands as follows: "Our small force of brethren seem absolutely unable to cope with the distress which prevails in this dark and benighted land, many of the natives are starving for food. Please send a few more missionaries."

The peasants of Bulgaria are telling each other that the Bulgarian army has done such deeds of wonder that not only the whole of the Balkan peninsula is to be placed under Balkan rule, but that the Dominion of Canada also will be given to them as a war indemnity.

The death occurred at Lethbridge last week of Andrew Olsen, a Blairmore old friend, aged 55 years. Deceased was a quarryman by occupation, and was for years employed at the rock quarries of the Rocky Mountain Cement Co. here. Only one relative is residing in Canada, a nephew, Olaf Erickson. The funeral took place at Lethbridge on Friday last.

Lethbridge expects to raise a fourth battery.

A. L. Fowler, of High River, was down last week end visiting his brothers here.

Alex. Patterson leaves town tomorrow night for Scotland, on a visit to home and friends before enlisting either with the army of benedict or the field army. Here's God speed to you, Alex, in both vocations.

Some people are wondering if after the 1st of July the government dispensaries will be expected to handle all drugs. If so, the output of the Alberta oil wells should be a part of their stock in trade, for to those who have been so fortunate as to invest their life's savings in oil stocks it appears that oil is going to be a drug on the Alberta market.

A rather strange phenomena has occurred in this district recently. Just below the old timber belt in the mountains, pines, spruce and fir trees are dying, supposedly as a result of the unusually severe frost of the past winter. Sap is now flowing freely from the trees, which have all withered. Reports come of a similar condition prevailing in parts of New Brunswick and Manitoba.

The question is asked: "Who paid the $100 fine for the government spotter who was convicted at Coleman recently for a breach of the license act?" Rumor has it that the department of attorney general came through with the dough to liberate that undesirable, when it was just as fully justified in paying the fines and costs in connection with every case brought about through the activities of that spotter gang where convictions were recorded.

It is useless to pretend that we cannot afford it. We must afford it. While any non-combatant remains in possession of more than $200 a year there is money to spare for the prevention of preventive hardships to the men who are risking their lives to save our means of life. Those who cannot fight must pay for those who do, and ought to be joyfully thankful to get off so lightly. No loss of money can be compared to the risks of loss faced by our soldiers and their dependents. Until our heroes are served, the rest of us count as zeros.

The new theatre-goers' tax came into effect yesterday. The government requires that a tax shall be paid on each admission ticket, pursuant to the Theatre-Goers' Act, as follows:

Moving picture theatres 1 cent.
Theatres used for opera, drama or vaudeville or any entertainment of the stage, 24 cents.
Where admission is $1.00 or over, 5 cents.

The tickets will be on sale at the box offices, and will be in books or strips like street-car tickets. Everyone gaining admission to the theatre must pay the tax, and the theatre manager must make returns to Edmonton once a week. He is under bonds to make the collections and send the proper returns to Edmonton. He cannot allow even friends to enter the theatre without paying the tax. Even the poor newspaper man with his pass will have to dig up the half-penny theatre tax ticket—which is a sore point.

Copies of the Canadian hospital news, a publication first issued by the soldiers at Granville Canadian special hospital, have come to hand, and are very interesting reading. Following we quote the first editorial:

"The impression of the first Canadian anniversary of Ypres that we have just observed, is not readily put away in comfortable seclusion till the coming of another spring—as with other anniversaries, for we find ourselves still in quiet contemplation of those basic ideals for which this grim sacrifice was willingly and cheerfully made.
In precipitating this mighty war, the German mind had said in substance, 'We are a peculiar people, a chosen people; the most enlightened in this world. Therefore, it is our imperative destiny, we, Germanic men, to expand, to overrun, and to crush, if need be, any and all opposition to our divinely appointed mission as the Sovereign people of this world. The world over, our Kultur must be implanted. Without us, in the history of the world, the fittest only survive, that mightiest law—Might alone is Right—holds sovereign sway. We, of all the peoples of this earth—we, a peculiar people, divinely segregated from the lesser nations, are alone chosen to bear the torch of Kultur, the Holy Grail of German achievement. Has not a greater-than-Moses said so; our own Bernhard?
Thus they make God sponsor for those deeds which His Son in every breath of his lovely but lovely life in speech and in example, condemned.
'Love thy neighbor' was the keynote of all his teachings and to this day scores of millions of people in their various degrees, are living by this dictum. In fact one may translate it into such popular language of the day as, 'play the game'—that golden rule of every good sportsman—of the man who so compassionate regards his weaker neighbor that he would never take an unfair advantage; could never do him injury. It is this same good sportsmanship that has held our arms unblemished from deeds of sordid savagery.

An entire absence of the same good sportsmanship has permitted the re-incarnation of the shameless Hun in the person of the modern German, who, today, would gladly burden the world with the ancient Hun of Kultur.
With the passing of Ypres, the underlying, basic purpose of the Canadian sacrifice at Ypres will ever shine more clearly, until one day every man will say, 'they fought gloriously and bravely with a noble spirit, to the end that the weaker neighbor should enjoy this life in freedom, and continue to play the game as he had always done.'"
